

Talent2 opens recruitment office in Greater Western Sydney

Formed by Andrew Banks and Geoff Morgan, Talent2 has established itself as a high quality mid and senior level executive brand, specialising in permanent and contract recruitment complemented with a research based search offering.

Talent2, Asia-Pacific's most innovative end-to-end Human Resources Outsourcing (HRO) solutions business, has successfully launched its latest NSW office located in the Norwest Business Park, Baulkham Hills.

When asked about the opening of the Greater Western Sydney (GWS) office, Paul Jury, National General Manager said, "Since opening in March of this year, there has been an unprecedented positive reaction from the marketplace whose appetite for an executive brand in their region has now been satisfied."

Gemma Avon, formerly Regional General Manager at LINK Recruitment has joined new hires Rosie Border, Sarah Fitzgerald and Felecia Oxtan having 12, 6 and 10 years respectively in the recruitment industry. Specialising initially with an Accounting and Finance discipline, Talent2 has plans to provide offerings across Sales & Marketing, Technical and Operations, IT and HR.

Paul Jury added that "The addition of the GWS office coupled with arguably the best recruiters in the market was part of Talent2's strategic push to increase the company's executive recruitment footprint across Sydney"
