

Media Release

First-Place International Acquired by Talent Partners

In exciting news for Talent2, First-Place International, a Brisbane based executive search business focusing on the government, not-for-profit and energy sectors, has been acquired to form the Queensland search division of Talent Partners.

First-Place International has a long and successful history as Queensland's 'first choice' recruitment provider for many high profile private and public sector clients. With specialisation in the recruitment of board directors, chief executives and senior managers, First-Place International is perfectly placed to move seamlessly into the international Talent Partners business.

Talent Partners is the retained executive search arm of the Talent2 Group and services the human capital needs of Boards, CEOs and top-tier leadership. Talent Partners has a global reach, which allows them to cast a wide net for prospective market leading candidates and complete assignments in the most timely and effective manner.

First-Place International's founder and managing consultant, Louise Baker, brings to Talent Partners 25 years search, executive recruitment and management assessment experience, along with a strong network to strengthen the Talent Partners' offering in Queensland. Louise's team, including Peter Gibson, who also brings human resource leadership in financial services, offer clients a truly unique and tailored service. In joining the Talent Partners business, they look forward to building on their success with the support of their new colleagues.
